Carol Emanuelson has been active with AIL for four years. Before retiring, she was an assistant professor of fashion design at Lasell College (now Lasell University) in Newton, MA. Proficiency in drawing, color theory, and art history are requirements for fashion illustration and design. Prior to teaching, she designed for Nic + Zoe, Sigrid Olsen and Lauren for Ralph Lauren. She has a BFA from the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) and an MBA from Babson College. Carol worked in operations planning and procurement in the high technology industry before becoming a designer.

Basic Watercolor Painting

Study Leader: Carol Emanuelson

Wednesdays, 3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

4 weeks beginning July 10

AIL Classroom, Lethbridge Lodge, Colby-Sawyer College

Maximum number of participants: 20

This is an introductory course on watercolor painting that will meet once a week for two hours each time. All classes will be held in the month of July: 7/10, 7/17, 7/24 & 7/31.

Class time will include instructions, demonstrations and exercises. Some homework will be assigned to finish up work started in class. We will review and critique each other's work. There will be plenty of time for questions, experimentation and fun!

Week 1: Painting your palette of colors. Color Theory. Value Scales.

Week 2: Painting Techniques. Curves and Circles. Lines and Triangles. Compound Strokes.

Week 3: Introduction to Layering. Leaves, Trees, Flowers and Fruit.

Week 4: Combined Techniques: "Hummingbird in Flight."

Required Course Materials:

Each person will need to come to the first class with some basic supplies. The total cost of supplies should not exceed $30. We will be using a pocket-sized set of 12 half pan colors. Specifications for supplies will be sent out to class participants as soon as possible following registration. If anyone enrolls for this class and already has watercolor painting supplies, please feel free to use what you have.
