Ticketed Entry to the
Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum is not only a repository for an incredible collection of old masters' art collected by a noted intellectual woman, but it is at the heart of the still unsolved mystery, the single largest property theft in the world.

Come spend the day and learn about the woman who built her home to house her collection of amazing art. In addition to participating in a docent-led tour, you will have the opportunity to view the permanent collection, learn about the stolen artwork, and enjoy the courtyard gardens which will surely bring a smile to your face!

Thursday, April 3 • Members Only, $125
8:15 am - 5:00 pm

Fee includes transportation, museum admission, docent-led tour, and lunch on site.
